SCOPE:

To ensure Group Health Cooperative of Eau Claire (the Cooperative) meets the needs of its members and providers by ensuring each member and provider understands their rights and responsibilities.

POLICY:

It is the policy of the Cooperative to provide new members and providers with a copy of the Member Rights and Responsibilities. Existing members and providers will receive a copy of the Member Rights and Responsibilities, if requested. Member Rights and Responsibilities are posted on the Cooperative’s public website and incorporated into significant member communications, such as the Member Handbook. A copy will also be made available to members and providers upon request via email, fax, or paper at no cost to them.

PROCEDURE:

MEMBER RIGHTS

1. You have a right to get information in a way that works for you. This includes:
 - Your right to have an interpreter with you during any BadgerCare Plus or Medicaid SSI covered service.
2. You have a right to be treated with dignity, respect, and fairness and with consideration for privacy. This includes:
 - Your right to be free from discrimination. The Cooperative must obey laws that protect you from discrimination and unfair treatment. The Cooperative provides covered services to all eligible members regardless of the following:
 - Age
 - Color
 - Disability
 - National origin
 - Race
 - Sex
 - Religion
 - Sexual orientation
 - Gender identity
 - All medically necessary, covered services are available and will be provided in the same manner to all members. All persons or organizations connected with the Cooperative that refer or recommend members for services shall do so in the same manner for all members.
 - Your right to be free from any form of restraint or seclusion used to coerce, discipline, be convenient, or retaliate. This means you have the right to be free from being restrained or forced to be alone to make you behave in a certain way, to punish you, or because someone finds it useful.
 - Your right to privacy. The Cooperative must follow laws protecting the privacy of your personal and health information. See the Cooperative’s Notice of Privacy Practices for more information.

3. You have the right to get health care services as provided for in federal and state law. This includes:

- Your right to have covered services be available and accessible to you when you need them. When medically appropriate, services must be available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

4. You have the right to participate with practitioners to make decisions about your health care. This includes:

- Your right to a candid discussion of appropriate or medically necessary treatment options for your conditions, regardless of cost or benefit coverage.
- Your right to accept or refuse medical or surgical treatment and participate in making decisions about your care.
- Your right to plan and direct the types of health care you may get in the future if you become unable to express your wishes. You can make these decisions by completing an advance directive, living will, or power of attorney for health care.
- Your right to a second opinion if you disagree with your provider's treatment recommendation. Call our Member Services Department for more information about how to get a second opinion.

5. You have a right to know about our providers and any physician incentive plans the Cooperative uses. This includes:

- Your right to ask if the Cooperative has special financial arrangements (physician incentive plans) with our physicians that can affect the use of referrals and other services you might need. To get this information, call our Members Services Department at 715-552-4300 or 1-888-203-7770 (toll-free and request information about our physician payment arrangements).
- Your right to request information about the Cooperative's providers, including the provider's education, board certification, and recertification. To get this information, call our Member Services at 715-552-4300 or 1-888-203-7770 (toll-free).

6. You have a right to ask for copies of your medical records from your provider.

- You may correct inaccurate information in your medical records if your doctor agrees to the correction.
- Call our Member Services at 715-552-4300 or 1-888-203-7770 (toll-free) for assistance with requesting a copy or change to your medical records. Please note that you may have to pay to copy your medical records.

7. You have a right to be informed about any Medicaid covered benefits that are not available through the Cooperative because of moral or religious objection. This includes:

- Your right to be informed of how to access these services through ForwardHealth using your ForwardHealth card.
- Your right to disenroll from the Cooperative if the Cooperative does not cover a service you want because of moral or religious objections.
